Rug Hooking Magazine : Rug Hooker's Garden, A: 10 Experts Teach You How to Hook a Veritable Bouquet of Blossoms (Framework Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rug Hooker's Garden, A: 10 Experts Teach You How to Hook a Veritable Bouquet of Blossoms (Framework Series):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. lovely visualsBy CustomerThis book will not teach you how to hook the flowers. But,it is a lovely visual with lots of information about legends in Rug Hooking. I bought it just for the article about Helen Connelly. My goal in rug hooking would be to hook flowers as realistic as she did in her pieces.²

some day I will be as good as these ladies. These projects are so beautiful and looks like they are fun to do. Can hardly wait.¹ of 1 people found the following review helpful. A Waste of moneyBy rose R This book is a complete waste of money. The marketing for the book touts it as a publication that contains invaluable, helpful tips from 10 experts in the rug hooking community. Not so. It contains very very little information about technique, lots of verbiage that doesn't explain and teach you anything.

full-color photography illustrations 8 x 10 More than 20 flowers are depicted in beautiful full-color photos, from spring's daffodils to winter's poinsettias, roses, lilies, geraniums and many more. A perfect book for anyone who has ever been puzzled by shading, hooking or dying wool for a pattern's flowers, or for anyone who wishes to create their own 'garden.' Topics include how to hook primitive flowers, throated flowers, and white flowers, and how to design your own floral rug. Ten experts have contributed to this book; including Nancy Blood, Connie Charleston, Marleta Anderson, Martha Beals, Helen Connelly, Susan Higgins, BJ Andreas, Jeanne Fallier, Betty McClellenic, and Jane McGown Flynn. A glossary and section on basic hooking technique is included for beginners.
