It is packaged in lightweight cardboard and you have to put it together to make it stand up. It is not nice at all. And the stickers are just regular paper, not the quality plastic ones like they used to be. For anyone who has gotten this in years past, you are going to be terribly disappointed. I wrote to the company and said that I am sure people like me would be willing to pay a little more for the way the product used to be. Just a warning.9 of 9 people found the following review helpful. Nothing like previous yearsBy N. Deboeck I was disappointed when I received this calendar. I have bought the Scrapbooker's sticker-a-day calendar for the last three years. Usually it comes in a sturdy case and the stickers are plastic with a clear back, useful for scrapbooking or other crafts. This calendar comes in a thin cardboard box, it's smaller, and the stickers are paper with colorful backgrounds. Not useful for scrapbooking at all! The designs are still cute, but I wouldn't recommend it if you're expecting the type of calendar you got before.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I buy this every year!By Lorena Merino This sticker a day calendar is great, I've been buying this every year for the last 5 years. It's very new every time, has different stickers and lots of stickers for holidays. The only thing new this year, that I didn't quite enjoy, is that the stickers are not see-through. They have a pink, light blue or white background. But the graphics are way better than last year.enjoy!
