Not what I was expecting By KrisLee RN Save your money and if truly interested borrow from a friend. Offered nothing of use for scrapbooking. Just tells her story of limited creativity in a family of scrapbookers. Bored me so much I put it down for weeks before I picked it up again to finish. I should have left it sit and forgotten about it. 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Hilarious Look At the Fabulous World Of Scrapbooking By TM Dawson Wendy Bagley is a hoot...she has an incredibly keen sense of humor and birds eye view of the scrapbooking world. Even her chapter titles are enough to elicit a chuckle or two. If you're a scrapper or know a scrapper, this book will give you a laugh and an insight or two into the world of scrapbooking. I read it through in one evening...couldn't put it down. The chapters are short and so engaging that you just can't resist turning the next page. The perfect gift for a scrapper or yourself. I highly recommend it!

In the tradition of Stitch 'n Bitch, a collection of humorous essays about America's obsession with scrapbooking. Scrapbooking leads to deeper love, better health, perfect kindness, universal peace, a clearer complexion, and material wealth. Or so says Wendy Bagley, the witty author of Scraps: Adventures in Scrapbooking. Scraps is a hysterical collection of essays celebrating this outrageously popular hobby in all its glory. True "Scrapholics"--a.k.a. Crop Queens, Photo Fiends, and 35-millimeter Mamas--will rejoice to see themselves reflected in the pages of this one-of-a-kind send-up. Overflowing with helpful hints ("Successful scrapbooking is one percent inspiration, eighty-nine percent perspiration, and ten percent snack food.") and aspirational wisdom (see the chapter titled "World Peace Through Scrapbooking"), Scraps is the perfect gift for the scrapbooking Mom who has everything.

"[Scraps] is absolutely hysterical . . . scrapbookers will laugh out loud." -- Sue DiFranco, Scrapbooking Industry News
About the Author Wendy Bagley is an award-winning advertising copywriter who claims not to be a scrapholic. She lives with her family in Salt Lake City, Utah. This is her first book.
