By Elleon As someone who has recently snuck into the house hiding a bag of newly purchased scrapbooking supplies from her husband, I could so relate to this book. Lain calls out the hilarious truth, exposing the irony in the logic and rationalizations we create in the pursuit of our hobby. She's talking about scrapbooking, but many of the essays ring true for crafting fanatics of any kind. (A quilter friend and I have discussed our weird need to stalk our various craft celebrities.) I highly recommend this book to anyone who loves to see the funnier sides of their favorite hobby. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.
