Victoria Woodcock : State of Craft before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised State of Craft:

Im a bit disappointed in this book as it was quite daggy.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. One StarBy tabitha nordmanOld ideas0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great Projects!By wildflowerwinosI was thrilled to get this in the mail! There was a lot of fantastic How-To's in the front of the book to make sure you have the know how to get started. The projects in the books were just darling! I cannot wait to get cracking on them so I can fill my home with these fun and practical projects!

State of Craft features over 60 clearly explained step-by-step craft ideas ranging from pom-pom necklaces to old-jumper pouffes, contributed by key names in the international crafting community. A thorough how-to section and interviews with high profile craftsters provide further inspiration. It's time to break away from the high street and into your toolbox!

From Tatty Devine's Mega Ping-Pong Hair Bobble - a hair pony made of painted ping-pong balls - to Tana West's Anglepoise Jar Lamp, which uses a jam jar and pieces of plywood to make a crafty twist on classic desk lamps, there's a craft out there for everyone. The projects vary in difficulty, but the ladies make everything from summer sandals to whale-shaped change purses seem doable, with cute illustrations and straight-to-the-point directions.
