You can make the projects as illustrated or in whatever way adapts to your projects. All the designs are not simplistic, but have simplicity in their beauty. Also the directions, stitches and floss information is excellent. I recommend this book, I am so glad I found it on . I have several embroidery books and this one is an awesome addition to my selection. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Beautiful book with the most lovely patterns By Janet LaBrie Beautiful book with the most lovely patterns. Received my book a couple of weeks ago and have completed three of the projects already. Beautiful, designs and colors. Directions very easy to

Expert quilter Kathy Schmitz (founder of the pattern company Kathy Schmitz Studio) presents Stitches from the Garden: Hand Embroidery Inspired by Nature, a medley of embroidery projects inspired by charm and wonder of nature. Filled with full-color photography, traceable embroidery patterns based on Schmitz's hand-drawn artwork, reader-friendly step-by-step instructions, and supplemented with a helpful diagram of embroidery stitches, Stitches from the Garden is a treasure trove of inspiration for needlecrafters! Highly recommended. --The Needlecraft ShelfStitches from the Garden: Hand Embroidery Inspired by Nature is a fine collection of hand embroidered works that use easy embroidery techniques to create keepsake pieces from tote bags and pincushions to notions keepers and more. The look is vintage but the techniques incorporate embroidery designs and approaches designed to streamline results and produce the best professional-looking results. Any who want to blend nature and garden images with useful gifts and projects that support sewing materials will find this an excellent collection. --Midwest Book About the AuthorWhen Kathy Schmitz was growing up, her mom always made sure that she and her sisters had an abundance of creative craft supplies at their fingertips. In adulthood, after many trials and errors, and jobs at banks and the like, Kathy says she is lucky enough to be what she always dreamed of being as a little girl, a designer. Kathy has designed fabric for Moda since 2002 and has had her own pattern company since 2007. You can find her online at KathySchmitz.com.
