Evelyn Alemanni : Succulent Bouquets (Fleurs du Jour) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Succulent Bouquets (Fleurs du Jour):

After writing seven volumes on creating flower bouquets from the garden, one plant family was left unexplored for decorative arrangements. Using the colors, textures, and variety of succulents to create "flower" arrangements, boutonnières, and bouquets is a welcome and inspiring opportunity, particularly because the succulents, once used in a bouquet, unlike other flowers, can be replanted.
