Laurent-Frederic Bollee : Terra Australis before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Terra Australis:

Just over 225 years ago, one of the most incredible odysseys in human history took place. 1,500 men and women were crammed aboard 11 ships and transported to the other side of the planet. They were criminals, outcasts, renegades: the scum of England. Having travelled over 24,000km, across three oceans, they arrived at a country that did not yet exist. For some, it was a one-way trip to hell; for others, it proved an unexpected chance of a new life. Bollee and Nicloux's 500-page masterpiece is an accurate, perceptive and sympathetic account of the birth of Australia.

About the Author Laurent-Frederic Bollee is a journalist who has written over 40 graphic novels. Fascinated by Australia, he began working on Terra Australis in December 2007. He is also the author of XIII Mystery, a spin-off from the world-renowned XIII saga. Bollee lives in Versailles, France. Philippe Nicloux is from Nice, France. He has published three graphic novels for the publishing house Les Enfants Rouges.
