Donna Pickering : The Handcrafted Soap Maker's Journal before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Handcrafted Soap Maker's Journal:

Whether you're new to soap making or an old pro, there are so many methods and techniques out there that you're sure to find something that fits your style. This journal will help keep your recipes neat and organized and all in one place so that you can easily find them when you need them. There's room to record important information like soap properties; water, lye, and super fat discounts, as well as an area to record any problems that may arise and how they are solved. Ingredients are listed in sections according to type and there's even room for photos of your fabulous soaps! Enjoy this old-time skill that has been gaining popularity as newer methods have made it so easy that just about anyone today can enjoy creating uniquely designed soaps. With a wide assortment of colors, scents and fragrances, and an endless variety of shapes, sizes, and molds to choose from, the sky's the limit for creativity!
