Tweety Jill is a favorite artist of mine2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. The Idea Book for ScrapbookingBy Belinda MillerI JUST STARTED SCRAPBOOKING AND WAS DELIGHTED WITH THIS BOOK. NOT ONLY DID IT GIVE ME IDEAS BUT IT LISTED THE COMPANIES WHERE I COULD PURCHASE ANY OF THE MATERIALS I WOULD NEED. THIS BOOK IS EXCELLENT FOR A BEGINNER OR SOMEONE WITH EXPERIENCE. IT IS A WINNER!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Out of dateBy Mom of threeI bought this book thinking it might help me with ideas to use my collection of rubber stamps in my scrapbook. It disappointed me greatly. There was not very much in the way of rubberstamping techniques in the book at all. A very misleading "tag" on the cover.This book is incredibly out of date.

It was published in 1999 and has ideas from the 80's and 90's. Virtually none of the products used are still being manufactured. Likely because they are so far out of date! If you are new to scrapbooking, do yourself a favor and pay attention to the publication date on any book you buy. The styles in this one will not serve you well. You'd be better off getting a current magazine subscription for the same price it would cost to purchase this book. I've flipped through the book once and I'm on my way to donate it to the thrift store for the tax write off.

This title is a classic on creative, fun colorful scrapbook page layouts. Over 1,000 ideas and tips. It is one book you will use as a resource over and over again. The unique design of rubberstamped collage images on the page margins gives this book special eye appeal to crafters.

About the Author Jill Haglund became an overnight success with "The Complete Guide to Scrapbooking", which sold 10,000 copies overnight. She also published "Scrapbooking for Kids (ages 1-100)"--a great introductory book on scrapbooking for every age! Once called the scrapbook "guru", she is now into all types of papercrafts. Jill's newest titles include "Vintage Collage for Scrapbooking" and she is working on two titles currently "Creating Vintage Cards" and "Artists Creating with Photos" which will be available in January 2005.
